

RED CAP CIGARS CELEBRATING THE GREATNESS OF TEXAS

Panhandle Reserve

- Named in honor of the Texas Panhandle, the northern most region of Texas bordered by New Mexico on the west and Oklahoma on the east.

Experience the bold flavors of the "Panhandle Reserve", a premium cigar from Red Cap Cigars inspired by the vast Texas Panhandle. This nub-shaped 4 x 60 vitola is hand-rolled in Nicaragua, offering a cooler burn that accentuates the rich, complex flavors within. Wrapped in a golden brown Habano leaf, with a robust Indonesian binder and a blend of Nicaraguan and Peruvian Long Fillers, the "Panhandle Reserve" delivers an intense smoking experience with notes of java, cedar, and spiciness. It's a fitting tribute to the northernmost region of Texas, where boldness and resilience define the land.
